

MORE RAIN PREDICTED FOR REGION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—One powerful lever that Ambassador Welles is taking back to Cuba is the promise of abolition of the Platt amendment if a stable government is formed.—Both Welles and Roosevelt believe in abolishing United States supervision over Cuba—so hated in the Island Republic.—Announcement will come when a coalition government is formed.—Eleanor Roosevelt was orphaned at the age of ten. She was married in the home of her god-mother, Mrs. Henry Parish, Jr., who also was the godmother of Sumner Welles.—The present ambassador to Cuba, then in knee breeches, was an attendant at the wedding.—Justice Brandeis is not overly happy about the way the New Deal is going.—Dean Acheson, one of his proteges and an ex-secretary, was bounced by Roosevelt. But this does not concern Brandeis nearly as much as the handicap set up for the small business man under the NRA.

Senator Couzens is out to "get" Earl Baile, appointed special assistant to Henry Morgenthau, Jr., in the Treasury. He has already had one talk with Morgenthau about it and is writing him a letter.—Baile was a partner in J. and W. Seligman and Company, floaters of the $100,000,000 loan to Peru of which the son of President Leguia got $15,000,000 as "commission."—"Couzens thinks appointment of Baile in the Treasury is just the Old Deal for bankers continued.—Mrs. Roosevelt leans toward simple dishes for White House lunches. Sometimes frankfurters appear on the table. One of the President's favorites is a concoction of clipped tongue with gravy.

TAX TARGET

Democrats who once pounded Uncle Andy Mellon on his tax rebates now find themselves a good target for Republicans.—Senator Dickinson of Iowa is harping on the refund given to M. L. Benedum of Pittsburgh and associated interests, Taxes, of $24,160,673 were claimed by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, but only $6,387,137 was finally collected.—John W. Davis, 1924 Democratic candidate for President, was the attorney—Democratic National Committee records filed with the clerk of the House show that Benedum contributed $5000 in August 1932, $2500 on September 2, $2500 on September 9, $2000 on September 15, and $7500 on November 5.—In addition to this the committee owes Benedum $17,500 on a loan.—Senator Dickinson also attacks Benedum because although a big oil man, he is on Secretary Ickes' special oil committee.—When Mrs. Roosevelt's parents died she was left $30,000. Until she became First Lady of the Land she was making about $25,000 annually (Continued on Page 3)

MARTINEZ, Dec. 2.—Clarence J. Smith today had been denied damages by a 11 to 1 jury verdict in Superior Judge T. D. Johnston's court in a $50,174 automobile injury suit that he instituted against Mrs. A. J. Kelg and the Napa Milling & Warehouse company. Smith was injured December 29, 1932, in a collision near Berkeley, and he had charged negligence to Mrs. Kelg. The jury deliberated less than an hour in arriving at its verdict. Smith was a passenger in an automobile driven by C. A. Haverland and claimed that he suffered fracture of a vertebra in his neck.

Hearst In Defense of Roosevelt

SAN SIMON, Cal., Dec. 2.—"Money lenders" who are clamoring for a return of the gold standard "are the Shylocks who want the last letter of their bonds" and President Roosevelt is trying to save the country from their clutches. William R. Hearst said tonight in an address.

Hearst criticized Alfred E. Smith to whom he referred as "Mr. Morgan's Political Agent" for campaigning for hard money along with the international bankers generally. "Whose thoughts, as you all know, from exposures and experience, are centered on foreign loans and his commissions, rather than the essential interests of the American people."

"The fight is on to establish the dear dollar, the fear scarce dollar, the dollar of depression. The bankers want you to pay them in hard money in blood money, and they will only money 'baldness' money."

"Mr. Roosevelt is striving to get the country away from the blood money of the Shylocks, away from the hard money for hard men. He is trying to make money easier for the average citizen, easier to get, easier to earn, easier to save, easier to spend."

Insult Ordered Extradited to United States

TRONTO, Ont., Dec. 2.—UP—Martin J. Insult, ordered extradited to Chicago to stand trial on criminal charges arising from collapse of the $2,500,000,000 Insult utility empire, tonight upon a staff of legal wizards sought to prevent his return to the United States.

J. C. McRae, K. C., his Toronto attorney, moved immediately for Insult's discharge before Appeal Judge H. H. Davis, after Ontario Supreme Court Justice A. C. Kingston granted the application of Cook county (Illinois) authorities to have the former American utility magnate extradited on charges of grand larceny, embezzlement and theft by Baile.

Judge Davis set December 8 as the date for a hearing of arguments on the motion to discharge. He granted a writ of habeas corpus freeing Insult under $10,000 bail pending disposition of the motion.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 2.—UP—Formal objections to the transcript of testimony in the David Lamson murder case were filed with Judge R. R. Syer today by Maurice Rankin, attorney for Lamson, who is sentenced to hang at San Quentin prison.

Rankin held that the transcript was incomplete because it did not contain the prosecution's closing arguments. The transcript must be filed with the state supreme court before December 19 when it is expected to hear Lamson appeal from the death sentence.

Lamson was found guilty of the "bath tub murder" of his wife, Alice Thorpe Lamson, in their Stanford university home on Memorial Day.

PEOPLE FLEE AT ERUPTION OF MAUNALO

HONOLULU, T. H., Dec. 2.—UP—Fishermen fled their homes at the foot of Mauna Lea, 14,000 foot volcanic crater, tonight as the giant volcano burst into activity after seven years of silence.

An earthquake, which shook the entire island of Hawaii, south of here, preceded the volcanic activity.

Clouds of smoke and vapor arose from the Mauna Loa crater soon after the earth disturbance.

Residents of the fishing village and coffee plantation along the Mauna Loa coast abandoned their homes after reports said large streams of lava were flowing down the sides of Mauna Loa and already had reached a point fourteen miles from the villages.

Army headquarters here also received the report of heavy lava flow but said the information had not been confirmed.

Mauna Loa's last eruption occurred in 1926 when lava wiped out many villages and caused considerable property damage.

It was reported by radio that lava was erupting in a spectacular manner throughout the two and one-half mile pit area. It was confined to the crater, however, he said.

One fountain of lava shot at least 500 feet into the air.

The belching stream of molten rock was pouring over a 1000.

Long Flight In Prospect For Lindberg

BATHURST, Gambia, Dec. 2.—UP—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, their big seaplane fueled for a long flight, advised local aviation officials they expected to take off Sunday at dawn on a 1500 mile flight across the south Atlantic to Natal, Brazil.

Such a flight, longest although perhaps not the most hazardous jump of their tour by air of two continents, would take the American flying couple over the equator to the southern hemisphere.

Aside from the evidence of life, the only place of habitation they would pass would be the rock Fernando to Nardania Islands, not far off the coast of Brazil.

Improvement at Kennel Club Is Completed

Monday marks the inaugural of the new enclosed mezzanine floor at the El Cerrito Kennel Club track. With large windows on the west end of the mezzanine to admit a clear view of the green bounds of display, special sliding glass partitioned doors allow fans to remain indoors while watching the races. El Cerrito is the only racing plant in the country with such an enclosure for its patrons.

Admission will take their rightful place of El Cerrito, and some of the "best" racing tracks such as "Master Spark" Armistead Day Nevada Zoo and the young Prince Carnegie are fairly adept at coming on the wet track.

A lot of eight-day races are on the Monday night. The management anticipates that eight days and ten day events will be scheduled weekly at El Cerrito to add spice and variety to the programs.

STANFORD IS STUDYING ROSE BOWL INVADER

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Dec. 2.—(U.P.)—Faced by a day of football apoplexy, Stanford University athletic officials said tonight they were far from a decision on selection of an eastern opponent for the annual conference football game at the Pasadena Tournament of Roses on New Year's day.

"I have nothing to say," Alfred R. MacKenzie, Stanford graduate manager, told the United Press when asked if the fourth opponent had been selected.

"And there will be no announcement until next week," he said. "There's just nothing doing."

Ames, although defeated by Notre Dame today, and Michigan loomed as the most likely candidates for the Rose Bowl invitation.

Chief sports in today's football were Notre Dame's surprising 13-12 victory over the previously undefeated Army eleven and Georgia Tech's 5-0 triumph over Duke.

The Princeton Tigers, who downed Yale, 7-2, informally rejected an invitation extended before the Yale game, it was understood.

However, it was considered probable that Princeton might reconsider.

Michigan is the choice of Stanford students and Army of the alumni sources, close to the Cardinal's board of athletic control said.

An obstacle in the way of acceptance by Michigan was a big ten conference ruling banning post-season games. Stanford is endeavoring to persuade conference officials to lift the ban so that Michigan, big ten champion may play in the New Year's contest.

Masters would not comment on the Michigan rumor.

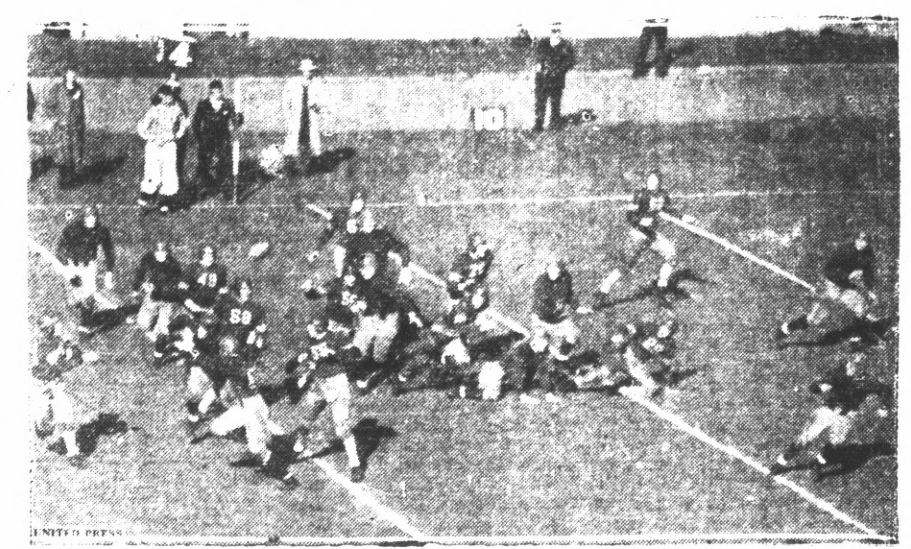

Stanford alumni were said to favor Army despite its defeat today by Notre Dame.

Another possibility was Nebraska. The Cornhuskers, who came through their season to finish strongly with an impressive victory over Oregon State, have developed a large following on the coast.

Sports writers, however, were inclined to crown on Nebraska's selection. They were said to prefer either Army or Michigan.

Trojans Win Over Georgia By 31-0 Score

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—(U.P.)—Southern California's power machine operating in its old time style for the first time this season, crushed Georgia by 31-0 before 50,000 spectators here today.

Georgia was flabby in spots but against that was the relentless drive that gained Southern California fame in national football circles for the last five seasons.

Troy's first touchdown came after an 88-yard drive down the field. It turned in 85 yards without losing the ball in making its second. The third, fourth and fifth touchdowns came on marches of 80, 36, and 50 yards respectively.

Troy was able to convert at only one touchdown, the first. Georgia threatened only once in the second quarter—and that drive bogged down on the 16-yard line when Southern California took the ball on down.

Foremost in Southern California's drive to victory were Homer Griffith, Backell Workman, Cliff Probst, Warburton and Jules Beskos, end. Beskos scored two of Troy's touchdowns on beautiful catches of passes across the goal line. Warburton, All-American quarterback on most selections, this year, was on the throwing end each time. Warburton made a touchdown himself when he went over tackle from the one foot line.

Griffith made another, after a beautiful 85-yard drive, in which he did most of the ball packing, by driving over right tackle from the two yard line.

The last touchdown was made by Bill Howard, third string quarterback, who went over just before the game ended. Howard directed and was instrumental in this march that started on the 50-yard line and ended with him going over from the one yard mark.

Homer Key and Cy Grant furnished most of Georgia's power but couldn't gain consistently. They turned in Georgia's best advance when Grant took Key's pass for a gain of 36 yards.

Army Beaten By Ramblers In Big Upset

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(U.P.)—Trailing 12 to 9 in the closing quarter of the most disastrous season in history, Notre Dame's football varsity hit its stride for 15 minutes today, whipped an undefeated Army team by one point and bucked triumphantly back into the glare of gridiron glory. The score was 13 to 12.

Nick Lukats was the invincible spearhead of a whirlwind that twisted down the field against Army's defenses in the final period. Again and again the Irish backfield huffed for 150 pounds against the West Point line. Yardage rolled beneath his plunges. Yardage fled under his sprinting feet as he circled and cut-back.

When the final period started, Notre Dame appeared hopelessly beaten. When a minute before the final gun, Lukats pleaded on the field, the Irish had scored twice and converted once to dash Army's hopes of meeting Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

Lukats scored the first Notre Dame touchdown on a single-handed drive from Army's 23 yard line. A few minutes later Krause blocked an Army punt which Miller recovered for the winning points.

Unbeaten and untied in a grueling schedule of games, Army entered the contest top-heavy favorites. Notre Dame had won but two contests.

But those who liked Army's chances vastly underestimated the brilliance and fury which was to be displayed by Lukats.

The game was one of lightning contracts and changes.

Duke Beaten By Tech For First Defeat

ATLANTA, Dec. 2.—(U.P.)—Georgia Tech flashed a devastating second period passing and running attack to defeat hitherto unbeaten and untied Duke, 6-0, here today.

The Duke Blue Devils, who had entered the game with high hopes of a victory that might bring a Rose Bowl invitation, were outplayed all of the first half by the underdog Yellow Jacket and made only one serious threat in the last half.

More than 16,000 fans saw the Tech team that has lost four games this season by less than 6-point margin bring its 1933 campaign to a dramatic conclusion by toppling the Blue Devils.

The Yellow Jackets made their greatest defensive stand to keep Duke from tying the score after the invaders gained a first down on the Tech one-inch line in the third period.

After a first period that was largely a punting duel, Georgia Tech cut loose with its inspired offensive that quickly drove from midfield to a touchdown in the second quarter.

The scoring drive started from midfield when Phillips tossed a 11 yard pass to Roberts. Another quick pass from Phillips to Slocomb gained 7 yards. Gibson took another heave from Phillips ten yards to a first down on Duke's 17-yard line. Petersen varied the attack by cutting off left tackle for 11 yards. Davis was thrown for a 1-yard loss at right end but on the next play swept around the same end for 7 yards and a touchdown behind perfect interference. He crossed the goal standing up. D. Wilcox failed to place kick the extra point.

Speaking Of Sports

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—(U.P.)—I deeply resent the implication that I requested this chance.

At Simmons, Chicago White Sox outfielder, was speaking, and he was talking about the recent alterations in Comiskey park which moved home plate 11 feet nearer the fences.

In spending several thousand dollars to alter the diamond and playing field at Comiskey Park, obviously to help Simmons' batting average, which slunk some 30 points last season after coming to the White Sox from the Philadelphia Athletics, Lou Comiskey, owner of the Sox, seems to have tossed his money out the window.

"I'll hit in any park," says Simmons. "I'll tell you what was wrong out there in Chicago. It's that wind off Lake Michigan. It catches hold of those long drives and gives fielders plenty of chance to camp under them."

"This report puts me on the spot. The fans no will expect me to hit 35 or to home runs and hit 30 or to points higher than my last year's batting average of .331."

Simmons didn't say so, but he obviously is grieving because it will look like he had to have a specially built park to help his batting average. If he doesn't hit better next year his salary check is going to be reduced more than Comiskey Park was.

There is little doubt among baseball men that Simmons will be a much dangerous hitter in Comiskey Park with its new dimensions than he was last year.

This not only goes for Simmons but it goes for several other White Sox players, who are long hitters, notably Charlie Berry, Jimmy Dykes, Luke Appling and Red Kress.

Comiskey Park after its alterations, as compared to Wrigley Field:

Comiskey	Wrigley
Leftfield ... 348 ft.	321 ft.
Centerfield ... 348 ft.	364 ft.
Rightfield ... 436 ft.	436 ft.

Despite its new dimensions Comiskey Park still will be one of the biggest parks in the majors, and will have none of the "band-box" aspects about it.

LEGALITY OF BANKRUPTCY ACT, ISSUE

MARTINEZ, Dec. 2.—Contending that the bankruptcy act, through which foreclosures on two Contra Costa county properties have been averted thus far, is unconstitutional, Attorney A. S. Sherlock of Concord is to oppose in federal court in San Francisco an order that stopped proceedings in a foreclosure action filed here by Mrs. Envy Boyd against Mrs. Averilla W. Caven.

Sherlock disclosed today that he has filed in federal court his objections to actions in the Boyd-Caven suit and is now awaiting word upon a hearing date.

Going directly to the constitutionality of the proceeding, Sherlock claims that the bankruptcy act is invalid because it impairs the obligation of a contract.

"There are many decisions," Sherlock said today, "that a state cannot impair the obligations of a contract and the United States constitution also contains such a prohibition. But, the constitution does not specifically state that congress is barred from such an enactment. Authorities are in conflict, however, on the power of congress to take action that would impair a contract. The point I have raised will go directly to the constitutionality of the law."

John Garaventa, Concord attorney, named as federal conciliator in 17 pending or impending foreclosures, balked trial of the Boyd-Caven suit by serving Supervisor Judge T. D. Johnston, before whom it was to be tried, and Sherlock. He had previously stopped proceedings in another action against Dwight Jones of Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Boyd's suit asks foreclosure to satisfy a note of $8,500.

The law was designed to give distressed persons an opportunity to avert loss of properties and make provisions for creditors to meet with a defendant in attempts to work out financial plans.

Lesson Today at the Scientists

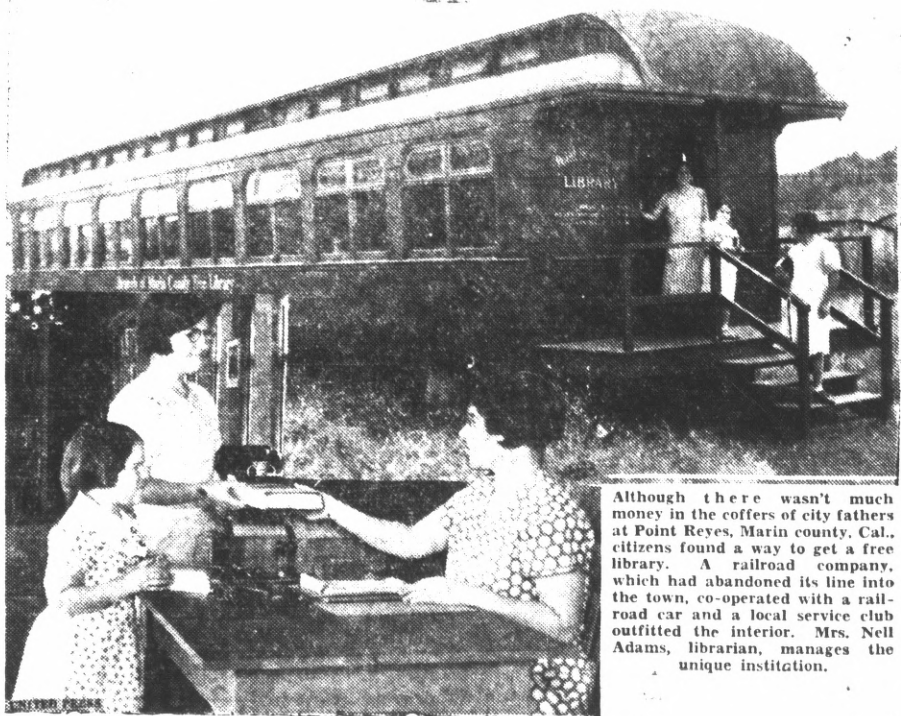

"I am the Lord, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King. These words from the Book of Isaiah comprise the Golden Text to be used today in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "God the Only Cause and Creator." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "The Lord reigneth; he is clothed with majesty; The lord is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath armed himself; the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved. The throne is established of old; thou art from everlasting." (Psalm 92: 1, 2).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "There is but one primal cause. Therefore there can be no effect from any other cause, and there can be no reality in aught which does not proceed from this great and only cause. . . . The spiritual reality is the scientific fact in all things." (p. 207).

Knoxville's two to one vote against a $12,000 bond issue for the erection of a municipal power distributing system was more than a post victory. It was a victory for the TVA.

Big Fare Cuts Put In Effect By Rail Lines

With material reduction in practically all classes of fares effective December 1, western railroads are now offering travelers a full line of transportation benefits calculated to bring about a great increase in travel to the Pacific Coast.

Accompanied by removal of the Pullman and sleeping car rates to one-third of the present rate, the cost of travel will be cut more than 25 percent in many instances, it was disclosed.

Comprehensive information concerning the new fare schedule is available at the local representative of the Southern Pacific at the following:

The one-way tourist fare has been cut from $5.00 to $1.00 to $1.50.

Children, between a Pacific Coast point and major terminals, are now reduced to two cents a mile.

The one-way tourist fare between the Pacific Coast and all California and western cities, with one year limit, is cut materially in all cases.

Local travel on Southern Pacific lines in the western states, good one way in coaches and tourist sleeping cars, and roundtrip in all types of accommodations, were cut to two cents a mile last July and these low fares will remain in effect.

Along with this program, Southern Pacific at a announced special Christmas excursion between the Pacific Coast and eastern destinations, leaving December 9 and again from December 11 to January 1, with return limit of January 15.

BARRYMORE IS STAR IN NIGHT FLIGHT

Thrills, pathos, comedy and romance are deftly combined, it is said to make "Night Flight" one of the greatest productions of the season.

Certainly Director Clarence Brown has placed in it a multi-star cast of remarkable proportions. The players include John Barrymore, Helen Hayes, Clark Gable, Lionel Barrymore, Robert Montgomery, Myrna Loy, William Garson, C. Henry Gordon and Leslie Fenton.

The story is announced as the most authentic and most human tale of the night air mail ever written. It is from the pen of Antoine de Saint-Exupery, himself a pilot over the very air line in South America so vividly described in the talking picture.

John Barrymore as Manager Central in the story is John Barrymore, hard, stern general manager of the air line. It is he who, with strict discipline, keeps his men flying through dark and through fog to get the mail through.

Pelloni (Robert Montgomery), one of the pilots, reports a storm coming in from the mountains, which he is then crossing. He wants to avoid this tale, but is ordered to proceed through it.

The storm approaches the coast, and manages Fabian (Clark Gable), pilot of the plane from Puntas Arenas to Buenos Aires. He, too, is ordered to press on, told that his mail must make connections with the Brazil plane for Europe.

Barrymore lashes his people to the highest point of efficiency, even the doddering old inspector of the planes, Robinson (Lionel Barrymore), inclined to be too lenient with the pilots.

At home, Madame Fabian (Helen Hayes) sits a pathetically lonely dinner when she is told her husband has been delayed and, later, becomes the storm center of great drama when the radio from Fabian indicates that the pilot is hopelessly lost—that he has been five minutes of his left.

Motors, crashing, line his bridge over the Rio at Lima, Peru, at midnight were blocked by a huge crocodile, which refused to move, and they had to shoot it.

Antonia, land and seaborne, among others, my research reveals these growths obtained their names from the different bits of food that accreted upon them from time to time.

"A mistake can grow anywhere between the nose and the nape and can consist of from two hairs to 10,000." The length is governed by personal taste and the physical ability of the cultivator. Their principal economic value is to determine how deep the soup is and also to serve as lasting monuments of great gastronomical triumphs.

Possibly Jimmy got that way playing the role of a barber in "Once Over Lightly" at RKO. Any way, he proceeds with a scientific catalogue of various chin crops, to wit:

"Whiskers are either chops, mustaches or beards. Each of these divisions branch out into numerous classifications.

NEW YORK INSIDE OUT

By DON O'MALLEY

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Mussolini, the Rockefeller Center for far away Rome the other day in regard to the palatial new Palazzo d'Italia to be erected in the new development, France and England have already erected their buildings, and with Russia recognized New York can expect a call from Stalin any day now.

The buildings of the different nations will house exhibits and stores, featuring the national products. Italy's building will feature pottery, and wines. Probably only Italian workmen will be used for the labor, although Mussolini and Italy have nothing at all to do with the building from an investment standpoint.

For a few years now that gap has yawned in midtown, between the Rockefeller Center, the incomplete overgrown expanse New York City is getting into action the entire appearance of Fifth Avenue will soon be revolutionized.

The Champion Cocktail

In London, a fortnight ago, the White, Spirit and Catering Trade Exhibition sponsored a cocktail contest, American cocktail connoisseurs and bartenders were tested, broken because the winning recipe wasn't given out. But here it is, the champion cocktail of all time.

It's called the Red Lion, and Louis Gutzat at the New Yorker hotel was the only mixer in town to find out the secret formula.

One-third dry wine, one-third grand marnier (a liqueur), one-sixth orange juice, one-sixth lemon juice, Shake and serve with lemon juice and sugar covering the top of a glass to create a frosty appearance.

One On The Level

As I've said before, I am a great fan of the Rockefeller Center. I think I look like a half moon approaching me for a quarter. I for what food tastes like," he cried, doubling up like a pretzel.

We called his bluff and asked to take him into a cafeteria. Didn't think he'd be able to eat a thing, I thought it was a racket, as it often is, and here was my chance to prove it.

Once inside he began to order everything in the restaurant. He ate everything but the chicken and turkey while I sat in wide-eyed wonder watching him. I was also thinking of the check, which came to $1.10.

and was my face vermillion?

Park Efficiency

Shakespeare admirers who come in town invariably seek out the Shakespeare Garden in Central Park. The Garden, a couple of years ago, had a tree which had been taken from the real Shakespeare Garden in Stratford-on-Avon, and which had a sentimental association with the famous bard. At any rate, this tree was unceremoniously removed a year or so ago from Shakespeare Garden and no publicity was given to the switch.

Today it rests in more fertile soil in some secluded spot somewhere in Central Park. Even the keepers and caretakers are unable to direct Shakespearean fans to the place.

ROMANCE FOR TWO

LAURA VITRAY

CHAPTER XXXII

"IGNATZ, old pal, I'm afraid the Tibbett family is up against it again!"

"Up against what, my cousin?"

Jim and Prince Ignacio were conferring in the parlor. The prince's bride, Emmeline, was in another part of the house with Mary.

"Up against poverty, Ignatz, and all that sort of thing. Mary and I have been there before. But it's harder this time. I'm wiped out completely. They sold me out in Wall Street while I was over there on the island."

"Well, of course, I've still got this house. But a house without an income is like a Spanish prince, Ignatz, with no castle in Spain."

"True! Quite true! One cannot live becomingly without an income."

"The prince paced up and down the parlor thoughtfully.

"Senior, my cousin," he said finally, "this is a time for action. Let us act! What do you say to a little pirate gold?"

"Pirate gold? Ignatz, you must be crazy! What pirate gold? Where?"

"Over on the island. Moreover, Ignatz took from his pocket a flat stone about six inches square and silently handed it to Jim. Jim examined the stone.

"Well—what is this?"

"Don't you see, senior?"

"I see a piece of rock with some scratches on it."

"A treasure, Ignatz, a treasure. This mark indicates where the treasure lies."

"What treasure? What in Sam Hill are you talking about?"

"The treasure which brought me to America, my cousin! It belonged to a Spanish ancestor of yours and mine."

"Darn swell of you to include me in it. But how come that our ancestor, hid his treasure in such an out-of-the-way place?"

"He lost it in a battle with a Corsair pirate. The pirate hid it there. It is his story."

"I should think it would have to be well guarded and spout it. If there's anything to this, we had better act!"

"ALONG the year 1640, senior, our ancestor, Rodriguez, was captain of a galleon that plowed its way between Lisbon and Borneo. The cruise was a long and dangerous one."

"I should hope so to tell."

"On one perilous voyage, at some distance from the Spanish main, Rodriguez was accosted by a pirate ship, strongly manned. It drew close. Some of the pirate crew succeeded in boarding the galleon, and a combat ensued."

"Gosh!"

"Our ancestor was a redoubtable fighter, and so were his men. When the battle was over, the pirate crew lay dead."

"I'm glad to hear it, even at this late date!"

"Rodriguez," he led their ship and searched. He found a fortune in diamonds and emeralds. And he found what today would be a hundred million dollars in purest gold!"

"Holy smoke! That's plenty!"

"It was the accumulated loot of the pirate band which had roamed the high seas for years, fariously plundering. Their treasure, senior, now became his."

"Sure!"

"But, alas, scarcely had Rodriguez and his gallant crew again set sail, when another pirate craft made after them."

"Gosh, Ignatz, that's too bad!"

"THIS time, Rodriguez and his men were overpowered; their treasure confiscated, their vessel sunk. Rodriguez made a prisoner."

2 TREES USED FOR HANGING ARE REMOVED

SAN JOSE, Dec. 2.—UP—Two trees, used as gallows last Sunday night when Thomas Thurmond and Jack Holmes were lynched by a mob bent upon avenging the kidnapping and death of Brooke Hart, were uprooted by city workers today.

City Manager C. B. Goodwin said the trees were to be used for fire wood.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—UP—Governor James Rolph, Jr., tonight stood by his declaration that the San Jose lynchings were justified, while, in many sections of California, citizens undertook militant opposition to the governor.

A group of San Francisco Bay district residents, most of them prominent in civic and educational affairs, declared the resignation of Governor Rolph must be demanded "to clear California's good name."

"That was to be expected, but it is nothing to worry about," the governor answered. "I'm not scared and I'm still governor of California, you know, and I'll handle this when it gets to my office. I haven't changed my mind about the San Jose case. It is only natural that there are individuals and groups who would not agree with me, but I'm getting accustomed to that."

Meanwhile, word was received here that the American Civil Liberties Union, New York headquarters, had instructed its San Francisco representative to post $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any member of the San Jose mob.

Another sidelight of the lynching came when the governor announced his tentative refusal to accept the resignation of Rev. Leslie C. Kelley, member of the State Boxing Commission, who stated his disapproval of the Rolph lynching policy when he resigned.

Rolph said he wanted a complete investigation of all charges made by Kelley. A meeting will be held Friday to give Rev. Kelley "the honor of explaining the charges," Rolph said.

smashed into the parked police car and then crashed into the pile-up of four wrecked machines. A hurry call was sent for police and a towing car. Patrolman Floyd Gilbert of the El Cerrito police responded and arriving at the scene of the crash he parked his machine, got out and walked to the pile-up of machines.

BUS IN COLLISION
At this juncture a tow car driven by Joe Linhurst from an El Cerrito garage, arrived near the scene and passed a bus driven by I. G. Bass of Berkeley. It is evident, police say, that Bass applied his brakes and the bus skidded, struck the tow car, crumpled off.

No arrests were made in the case as Patrolman Gilbert stated that his investigation had convinced him that the case was an unavoidable accident. Traffic on the bus line was held up more than an hour before the damaged bus could be replaced. About ten persons were riding in the bus at the time of the crash. They suffered no injuries, police reported.

7 INDICTED IN KANSAS

ney General Roland Boynton and State Auditor Will French, have been impeached by the Kansas house.

Their trials before a senate court of impeachment is scheduled January 8.

Boynton and French were not indicted today.

Others indicted were: Carl W. McKee, president of the First National Bank of Topeka.

C. L. Cooke, president of the Prudential Investment Company, and also closely associated with the First National Bank of Topeka.

Collis Harner, an employee of the Prudential Investment company.

Cooke and Harner were named jointly in an indictment alleging they made false entries in connection with the National Bank of Topeka's funds.

Another indictment charged Cooke with abstracting $10,000 in U. S. Treasury bonds from his firm to convert them to the use of Ronald Finney.

The report was made to U. S. District Judge Richard J. Hopkins.

Auto License Renewals For Next Month

Renewal of registration and issuance of 1934 license plates for approximately two million automobiles in California starts next month. The renewal period will open on the morning of Tuesday, January 2, and continue to January 31 at midnight. The state registration fee, fixed by law, is $5 for private passenger automobiles. Owners who fail to apply for new plates before expiration of the renewal period will have to pay double, or $10, as a penalty. Plates will be issued by the Division of Registration, Department of Motor Vehicles, at its various offices, with mail applications being received at the Sacramento headquarters.

The petition was termed, in the complaint "of the utmost importance" to the people of the East-bay region.

It sets forth that on April 1, 1926, the district filed with the Department of Public Works an application for the right to appropriate waters of the Mokelumne river for storage and diversion.

After certain amendments, and corrections the application was again filed with the department, and all fees were paid, on July 30, 1926.

On May 26, this year, the department issued a permit for the district to appropriate 750 cubic feet of water per second annually, and to store 25,000-acre feet between certain specified periods.

But the storage and use of the water "shall not interfere with other users, such as cities and towns," according to the permit, as included in the complaint.

It is this restriction to which the utility objects.

The district claims it objected to this stipulation to the State Division of Water Resources, which refused to delete the paragraph in question. Later, the district took the issue before the State Board of Review, which made a minor revision in the paragraph but failed to remove the restrictive clause, according to the complaint.

The petition sets forth that the question is one of the utmost importance, since the district contemplates the erection of a huge power project, the condemnation of private property and the re-routing of a state highway, and hesitates to go ahead until the restriction is removed.

Attorneys for the district said they "are not prepared to say" what effect an adverse ruling by the State Supreme court on the petition, would have on the power project.

WHAT are the PURCHASING AGENTS DOING?

EVERY big company has one or more men whose entire time is devoted to buying the things which that company needs.

These men are specialists. It is their business to know prices... materials... sources of supply... present and future trends. They are the shrewdest, canniest buyers in the world.

But ALL of us, in a small way, are purchasing agents. We HAVE to buy a certain number of things, if only to keep alive. And most of us aren't very skillful at it. We waste a lot of money. We miss the good bargains. In fact, we could learn a great deal by watching a professional buyer at his work.

At this time, especially, it may be helpful to know what the big purchasing agents are doing. Are they cutting down? Are they opening up? Do they think this is a good time to buy or a bad time? What do they think about the future?

Well, the answer is that they are all buying as fast as they can buy.

And they are buying because THEY KNOW THAT PRICES ARE GOING UP.

"Pig iron has advanced 13 percent", the purchasing agent of a $20,000,000 corporation recently said. "Brass is up 42 1/2 percent. I am paying 41 percent more for lumber than I did in March, and fiber packing cases have doubled in price. In fact, everything we use in this business is costing us more today, and will in my opinion cost us still more tomorrow. I believe... that many commodities will be back to or near 1929 levels by spring."

That's the way the professional purchasing agents feel about it. And they KNOW. They have special sources of information. They are closely in touch with industry. They have studied the workings of the NRA codes.

PRICES ARE GOING UP. And it's a good thing for everyone. For things had come to the point where NOTHING had any true value. A man's time... his product...

his property... all had sunk so low in value that he couldn't even get a decent living.

That couldn't go on. So the Government set up the machinery of the NRA codes in order to MAKE EVERYTHING WORTH SOMETHING AGAIN.

This process is now under way. Wages are being raised. Commodities are bringing better prices every day. But it is not yet over. Before fair values... living values... can be reached, prices will have to go higher than they are now.

Before they do, take a leaf from the purchasing agent's book, and lay in a supply of the things you need. There are many good bargains still to be had. But these stocks are strictly limited. NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY.
